

Electrical Designers – San Diego

Randall Lamb's San Diego office is seeking entry level Electrical Engineering Graduates, CAD/REVIT Designers and Electrical Designers. These positions will provide design/engineering support for construction projects in the Commercial, Military, Education, Hospitality and Science and Technology sectors. The successful candidates must be self-starters with the ability to work well in a team environment.

Requirements:

1. BS in Electrical Engineering or Architectural Engineering required
2. FE/EIT License desired
3. Registered Professional Engineer License (PE) desired
4. 1 - 3+ years' experience in construction industry required
5. Excellent communication skills
6. AutoCAD experience required
7. Revit/BIM experience desired
8. LEED AP desired

Randall Lamb Associates is a prominent multi-disciplined, award-winning firm offering mechanical, electrical and plumbing (MEP) engineering, LEED coordination, and sustainable design. With offices in San Francisco and San Diego, Randall Lamb professionals enjoy living and working in an environment with extensive cultural pursuits and year-round activities. We offer competitive salaries, excellent benefits, challenging work, a mentor program and great working environment.

www.randalllamb.com

Submit cover letter and resume to TeamRLA@RandallLamb.com. No phone calls please.